

→ SAVE

S
'A

6 — (UP)
rything
g that
n know
prison
l told a
urday.
ey, com-
ir Force
address-
n of the
War As-

v
The
spe
dis
bill

He
du
rol
(P
pro
avi
anc
axi
fen

E
fini
bran
petro
Thei
Arm
quir
met
of t

"T
as n
on
mor
by
pan
mar
pon

H
mar
mor
defe
ficia
tanc
comp
mon
that

Av
requ
repe

admin-

:
st pay
money
mort-
how to
they'll
wait-

o re-
ere:
erest
some
pri-
ease

re-
fin-
ake
ort-

or-
abs-
ting.
dis-
cause
give

ard
nd
a

Fully accustomed to publicity by now, this woman, who would not identify herself further than to say she is a "peace pilgrim," walked through Guthrie Saturday on a coast-to-coast walkathon "because I think the world needs peace." Headed for Washington, D. C., for an interview with President Eisenhower, the woman said she had walked all the way from California and had worn out two pairs of shoes.